J. M. ROSSION, PRES. ROBERT W. COLE, CASHIER.

Prof. B. C. Lewis

Sometime ago we announced the name of Prof. B. C. Lewis, as a candidate for the office of Senator for this District. Up to this time we have been unable to procure his cut, but now as we have same we present him in somewhat the way he appears.

Mr. Lewis was born in Laurel county, Kentucky and was educated in Union College with which he has been connected for many years as instructor in the Normal Department. He has been connected with school work most all his life and has been very successful.

He expects to enter on a vigorous campaign about May 25th, and will allow no grass to grow under his feet.

Mr. Lewis is well known especially among the teachers of this and adjoining counties, beside this he has a large train of kinsmen in Laurel, Clay, Knox and Whitley counties all of whom are hustlers.

Nelson W. Aldrich

That he was the persistent, potential friend of American labor and industry, the powerful advocate of all that contributed toward the support of American business, is the monument that immortal history will erect over the grave of Nelson W. Aldrich, whose death occurred April 15, 1915. During his term of thirty years in the United States Senate he never faltered in his conviction that the best interests of American business were the best interests of the American people as a whole. Believing this, he was, of course, a stalwart Protectionist. His was the guiding hand which helped to frame two of the best Protective Tariffs the country ever had; the Dingley Tariff of 1897 and the Payne-Aldrich Tariff of 1909. Senator Aldrich had no doubts and no delusions on the subject of Protection. He knew what Protection meant to American employment, American wages and the American standard of living. In his view labor and its rewards were the great things to be considered. Almost twenty years ago the editor of the American Economist wrote to Senator Aldrich in Washington the following inquiry:

What, in your judgment, is the proportion which labor cost bears toward production cost?

Very promptly came the reply of Senator Aldrich, as follows: "Labor cost and production cost are practically equivalent terms. Believing this as he did, Mr. Aldrich could hardly have been any less than the positive that compromising Protectionist, unless he was. All honors to his memory!"

Boon Way Commissioners Appointed

Dr. W. C. Black and Dr. F. P. Dishman of this city were elected the two Commissioners from Knox County to locate the "Boon Way" from Cumberland Gap to Louisville at a Boon Way Convention held at Mt. Vernon evening of the 26th. instant.

The Commissioners went into executive session and succeeded in officially locating the old Daniel Boone trail from the Gap to Harrodsburg passing through Middleboro, Pineville, Barbourville, London, Mt. Vernon, Crab Orchard, Stanford, Lancaster, Tazewell and Harrodsburg. Convention adjourned to meet again the 22nd of May and complete its work. Lawrenceburg and Lexington are each making a strong pull for the road but as the latter is the most direct the probability is that same will be routed that way unless the Dixie Highway is routed through Lexington.

Judge L. W. Bethurum presided over the Mass Convention Senator Joe F. Bosworth and Mayor Mauring were the elected Commissioners from Bell County Senator Bosworth, Dr. Back, and Judge Hardin from this end of the state spoke at the meeting.

$20 INCREASE PER ACRE ON LAND ADJOINING ROADS BUILT UNDER NEW STATE AID LAW

This State Aid Law for Building Good Roads Promises To Be the Greatest Blessing Ever Brought To Kentucky Land Owners, If the Burden of the Taxes is Not Thrown Upon Them Through Unwise Legislation.

The new and greater Kentucky, as a result of wise legislation, as against the old Kentucky, with unwise legislation, high taxes, bad roads, poor schools and worse school houses. Which do you prefer?

An increase of at least $20 an acre on the value of all lands adjoining improved roads built under the new State Aid Law is estimated by expert calculators who have gone into the subject very thoroughly.

The building of these public highways will also increase all other lands in proportion in every county and district.

This most notable forward step will prove the greatest blessing that has ever come to the land owners of Kentucky.

It is the intent of this law that all taxable property shall bear its proportionate burden of taxation for this State Fund for road building.

It was not intended that the land owners, though possibly receiving the greatest benefit, should bear the greatest part of the tax burden. Such great sources of revenue as our railroad properties, distilleries, financial institutions and manufacturing enterprises will bear their just part, as well as all other taxable property. The throttling or crippling of any of these great resources by hostile legislation must lay a heavier burden upon the land owners and other tax payers.

More than 100 counties have already levied a tax upon themselves in order to take advantage of this State Aid Fund for the building of Good Roads in their respective sections. This year alone the fund amounts to $685,220. This sum will be increased by levies in these counties so that the sum expended will probably exceed two million dollars.

It is estimated that at least 6,000 miles of good roads will be completed under this new State Aid Law within the next 15 years, costing when completed approximately thirty millions of dollars. It is also estimated that the expenditure of the two million dollars this year will increase the value of property to the extent of at least twenty-five millions of dollars in the counties where these roads are built.

This is a splendid beginning. What a difference this will make to the land owners, the farmers and all others who make use of county roads, whether for business or pleasure. There are many fine farms in Kentucky 20 or more miles from the railroad that are not worth half as much as if they were near a railroad station, for the reason that it is too far to haul farm products to market over the old-fashioned dirt roads, which are practically impassable for nearly half of the year.

What a difference, though, when these same farms shall have been connected with the railroad or the market with a good State road over which it is easy to drive and haul as compared with the old roads. To haul a large load over a good road, even twenty miles, is easier and quicker than to haul it over five miles of the old time winter mud road. These good roads, therefore, will bring the distant farm nearer to the market and add greatly to the profits of the products of the farm.

Under the supervision of competent state and county road engineers, county seats and the most populous sections of the State will be connected by improved public highways, bringing church, school and market nearer door of every family. Then will a new era of prosperity in Kentucky be inaugurated.

With the markets thus opened, the farmer can market his products of all kinds to better advantage in every way - do it in a more easy, less cost and than ever heretofore.

While good roads carry and of more cost than possibly any other means to which the farmer can turn his other important such wholesome expenses of government. These expenses have to be met out of the taxes paid on the property of our citizens.

Any legislation that would tend to cripple or render less valuable any of the great tax-paying industries of the State, will necessarily transfer the burden to the farmer, merchant and home owner.

It is time for every tax payer to demand that his Representatives in the Legislature consider these facts. It is time for them to call a halt to the destruction or threatened destruction, by hostile legislation, of property interests in the State from which we derive our greatest revenues.

In other words, industries and enterprises that pay the largest taxes and make possible the great benefits to be derived from good roads, good schools, and improvements in the State, must not be destroyed from the State.

Good roads bring and city folk in means a broader attitude in public ever

Now For a Greater Kentucky

Hon. Thos. G. Hammons, Judge of the Knox County Court.

A few days ago Judge Hammons received notice that all real and personal property was raised 10%, and a raise of 5% on city lots. As soon as Judge Hammons received this notice he got busy and went to Frankfort and went before the the State Board, and presented his side of the case so strong that the Board gave the matter due consideration, and let Knox County off with one half of the amount, or in other words 5c on each $100 words of real and personal property.

Through Judge Hammons' untiring efforts in this matter he saved the taxpayers of County something like $13,000 This is a great saving to the people of the County and Judge Hammons is to be congratulated as he is one of the only a very few that has ever been able to get any reduction in a raise when once fixed.

Judge Hammons was congratulated by Governor McCreary and others of the State officers on his victory in this matter as well as by Prof. J. W. Jordan, of Williamsburg, Ky. on congratulating Judge Hammons presented him with a fine gavel made of a rare piece of timber, asking him to keep it to govern his courts in the future and to preserve it a memento of his victory on this occasion.

As we said before Judge Hammons is deserving the highest applauses of his fellow citizens.

BE A BOOSTER
FOR BARBOURVILLE

This is a good town and it has a multitude of good live active men in it and many Institutions worth while. We are just now passing out of a period of business stagnation. Our coal mines have not been active for more than a year and our railroads have not been carrying to their full capacity; lumber and timber bark and all manufactured products are "off" so to speak.
Some lay it to the war and many others to the Democratic Administration. However this may be, all agree that business has been very poor. It is now coming back.
It is compelled to revive. In the next few months business will be like spring time with flowers budding forth, growth and development, spreading all over the United States. All indications point one way, to big business, to activity in mining and manufacturing, and that means business for the railroads and all transportation facilities. The town of Barbourville ought to join this. It has many natural advantages. It is surrounded by fine coal fields and great forests of valuable timber. The new railroad project, which is just now starting will give employment, while in the course of construction, to many hundreds of men and teams and will require a large sum of money in its construction. This will help every citizen and will make more business for the merchant, for the lumbermen and the man who has to sell and the farmer who has produce, and everybody who has anything to sell.

Already our town is increasing in population; hundreds of other people have their faces turned toward Barbourville, because it is not only a good town, but it is going to grow and be better. We should organize for the purpose of promoting the interest of our town and community and invite new citizenship and new enterprise.

"We support the American Protective Tariff League because it advocates the principle of Protection to American industries, with which we are in most hearty sympthy, believing it to an essential and proper safeguard and stimulus to our business. In spreading this doctrine the League is ably performing a most important and necessary work."

Sixty-Six Millions A Month

The volume of imports has been so great under the Wilson-Underwood-Simmons Tariff that instead of receiving from the rest of the world nearly seven hundred millions of dollars net per year for goods which we sell them we are paying them the present Tariff about one hundred millions net for goods which they sell us, a change against us of nearly eight hundred million dollars, or about sixty-six millions a month.

If American factories and American workmen were permitted to produce a part of these valued at sixty-six millions th instead of our friends way that this tained Tariff

Just as the manufacturers understood that the depression before the war was due to the Democratic Tariff, so the farmers are understanding that the highest prices for wheat in twenty years are due to the war. Out of that material the Democrats will not be able much "moasses" to

A Triangular Sob Party

In this country our best men have almost forgotten patriotism in the quest of business advantage—Ex-Senator Albert J. Beverage.

In his business or improving the morals of his countrymen the Grand Young Man lets no opportunity to turn an honest dollar escape him—New York Sun.

The mission of the "reformer" is an exacting one. He must always be meddling with some other fellow's morals or business.
Nothing on this earth is quite enough for him. Indiana's Grand Young Man doubtless has suffered intensely in spirit because of the highly immoral and altogether unpatriotic conduct of American business men in attending to their own business. These men have persisted in investing their capital, in erecting industrial plants, in employing American labor and in paying American wages. They have gone so far as to make our country the best country in the world to live in.
While thus engaged they have "forgotten patriotism?" Dreadful thought! This Hoosier evangelist should join Jacob H. Schiff and Henry Ford in making up a triangular sob party. Schiff thinks that a Protective Tariff is the cause of wars, Ford is certain that universal Free-Trade is the one ennobling and purifying influence that would set everything right, and Beveridge expects Paradise to be regained when business men concentrate on patriotism and banish business from their thoughts. Great is "reform."

313,073 Idle Freight Cars

The slight decrease in the number of idle freight cars April 1, as compared with March 1, is mainly due to the larger use of cars. For box cars, in which merchandise is carried, the demand was smaller and the number of idle cars was greater. According to the monthly report compiled by the American Railway Association, there was on April 1 a net surplus of 313,073 idle cars on the lines of the United States and Canada, as compared with 321,747 on March 1, a decrease of 8,674 cars. In the month ended April 1 gross surplus, as compared with March 1, decreased from 322,290 to 313,421 while the total shortage changed from 543 to 348. As of April 1, the net surplus of box cars was 73,192; coal cars 145,036, and flat cars, 19,422.

The decrease in the number of idle freight cars on April 1, as compared with March 1, was small. As reflected in the surplus of freight cars, there was no indication of any noticeable improvement in the country's freight traffic. Operating conditions have been generally favorable, in marked contrast with the heavy weather of March last year.
On April 1, 1914, the net surplus of idle cars was 139,512, a decided difference from the total this year. During March there was some decline in the number of coal cars available, which the surplus of box cars was larger on April 1 than at the beginning of March.

Taken as a whole, the situation as to idle freight cars does not support the contention that business is improving. Free-Trade depression continues to be accurately reflected in lack of business for railroads to handle

HE MAKES MR. RED-FIELD LOOK ABSURDThe Charge of "Inefficiency" Met by an Unanswerable Array of Facts and Conclusion

New York Sun

To the Editor of the Sun: Sir—To Secretary Redfield's recent remarks in the New York World on the Tariff I take a decided exception. A man holding the position of Secretary of Commerce should not be so narrow and prejudiced in his views that he can see no good in stimulating the development of American manufactures. Anyone reading his articles who is not well posted would be misled. While the Secretary has held many things to learn. The idea of his saying that a great party has preached the doctrine of American inability is absurd. The Republican party has never preached such doctrine and he knows it. It has preached that in order to pay double the wages that are paid abroad a tariff or duty should be put on foreign goods to equalize the difference in the cost of production.
His whole article teems with assertions of inefficiency of the American manufacturer. I challenge him to point to any mills in the world that are more efficient than the average textile mills here in America, yet he claims that the American manufacturer needs less Tariff and more efficiency.

Ignorance should be no excuse for a man holding the position of Secretary Redfield. I am speaking for the textile industry of America. As the Secretary makes no exception in his article, I take it for granted that he puts all American manufacturers in the same class.

The textile industry that has brought up to the highest degree of efficiency in England, France and Germany. Tur mills, using the same kind of machinery, have also been brought up to the same high standard. Why is it we cannot compete with the foreign mills? It is only a question of labor and overhead charges. For instance, a mill in America that has a monthly payroll of $50,000, making similar goods and with the same output as a mill in Bradford, England, with a payroll of only $25,000 (by reason of the difference in the cost of labor) would be undersold and driven out of business by the English mill unless the American mill could reduce its wages to the English standard.

In regard to overhead charges our mills, machinery, engineering, boilers, shafting and many other things have all been built or made with good American wages.
The result is that the overhead charges are also double the charge in the case of our foreign competitors.

It has always appeared to me that when the party to which Secretary Redfield belongs is advocating Free-Trade it wants to bring our wages and conditions down to the foreign level. The Free-Traders ignore the fact that the textile business is open to all who wish to engage in it, and that no matter how high the Tariff is, competition keeps prices down to a low and competitive basis.

The Secretary has been in the iron business, where freight alone offers quite a Protection. He has been vice-president of an engineering concern, manufacturing blowers, but this practical experience does not fit him to be the mentor of American manufacturers, especially in regard to the Tariff which has done so much to develop our industries and increase the wages of our workmen.

The Secretary has nothing to say about the comfortable homes and good living of our work people prior to the last presidential election. He harps on old methods, old machinery, efficient management." In fact, reading over his article we get the impression that the average American manufacturer is living in the past and has not awakened to the present life where economy, thrift, efficiency and hard work are needed in order to compete with the great majority of our domestic mills, located in many different States.

The Secretary says:

The high Tariff has been a curse to many a manufacturer, because of the training in industrial cowardice that has gone with it.

This might be true if competition did not regulate prices and promote economy and efficiency.
This fact the Secretary absolutely ignores. Give the American manufacturer the same rate of wages and overhead charges that are paid abroad and he will compete successfully with the world.
But does Mr. Redfield want the same conditions to prevail?

If he has a patent which will enable textile mills here to compete with foreign mills and still pay our American wages, he should make it known for the benefit of American industries, instead of dealing in glittering generalities and putting us in a class where we need the Tariff to make up for inefficiency.

The war in Europe is responsible for what improvement there is in the textile industry in America, with imports from Germany, Austria, Belgium and the textile centers of France cut off.
If it were not for the conditions existing abroad this country would be flooded with goods under the low Tariff of the Wilson administration, and our mills would be compelled to reduce wages fully 25 per cent in order to compete. This would mean strikes and no end of trouble before wages in this country could be reduced to the European level.

ADMINISTRATION

Chicago Election Result and Unmistakeable condemnation of Wilson and Free-Trade

Buffalo Commercial

The municipal election in Chicago resulted in a sweeping victory. William Hale Thompson, the Republican candidate for Mayor, was elected by a plurality of about 140,000 over Robert M.
Sweitzer, the Democratic candidate. All other city offices were carried by Republican candidates by majorities of 75,000 or more.
Not in the lifetime of the proverbial oldest inhabitants has the Republican party in Chicago scored such an overwhelming triumph in a municipal election.
Democrats are not merely stunned, but appear to be paralyzed by the magnitude of their defeat.
The Progressives made no fight.

Ordinarily it would be of small consequence to the country at large whether Chicago went Republican, Democratic or Bull Moose. Municipal elections are generally determined on purely local issues, as they should be.
In this contest there were some city issues raised and discussed.
The Democratic candidate had guardedly promised to give the people a wide-open town, and his Republican opponent was equally guarded in affirming to the existing sumptuary laws.

But the main fight was over national affairs. It may be seen strange and out of place to inject the issues considered in Congress into a city election, but hard times is an issue that will crop out whenever and wherever the voter has a chance to make his voice felt in public affairs. It is true that the Mayor of Chicago cannot relieve the situation, but at least the voter has the satisfaction of letting the party responsible for conditions know what he thinks of it.

The issue of the smokeless chimney and the empty dinner pal was raised by Republicans.
They did not, indeed, promise better things immediately, but they called upon the voters to re-tune the political organization had passed the Underwood Tariff law and other national legislation which, whether intended to do so or not, has vexed, harassed and hindered the honest efforts of business men to employ capital and labor. The Democrats were forced to accept the challenge, and so the campaign turned upon the question of indorsing the Wilson administration. The people of Chicago have now spoken their mind. Who can doubt that it voices the sentiment of the rest of the country?

"Backache! Me?-- Oh No. -- Not Now."

No Backache or Kidney Trouble or Rheumatism for ROOT JUICE Users—Guaranteed.

What relief. I could scream with joy and happiness to think that I was set up every morning and go about all day without a sign of that aching backache. That's what people are saying who have suffered from weak kidneys, backache and rheumatism for years. No wonder. You'll feel like screaming with joy yourself. You've suffered with your aching loins and back, for so long it has become almost a part of your life. But, oh, wait till you experience the glorious relief of being completely and entirely rid of it.

"Backache! Me?-- Oh No. -- Not Now." This glorious ROOT JUICE entirely relieved it. You've wasted time and money enough trying uncertain things, you've suffered already longer than there is any need of. Stop, stop. ROOT JUICE, pure, reliable, harmless, safe, guaranteed. ROOT JUICE is going to give you the greatest surprise you ever experienced in all the days of your life. Of course, you'll have to do your part and take it. Even ROOT JUICE can't help you until it gets into your system. But if you have any idea what real relief will be like, you'll waste no time getting it. You're missing a lot of comfort, yes, real joy and happiness every minute you delay using it and you're enduring a lot of needless suffering. You'll see.

At any first class drug store you can get a large bottle of ROOT JUICE for a dollar. That dollar buys relief that is worth a hundred dollars to anybody who knows what rheumatism, backache and kidney trouble are. Remember that dollar, and only back for ROOT JUICE, but it pays for relief. You've got to get relief or get your dollar back. That's how good ROOT JUICE is. No relief no pay, that's the understanding.

This time get ROOT JUICE and relief. Don't put off and don't let anybody tell you of something else that's better. Nothing ever made is any better, mark these words and see. Try ROOT JUICE for ten days and save yourself any more suffering. If you are so fortunate as to have escaped these life-darkening miseries, for goodness sake tell some suffering friend or acquaintance what this grand medicine is. You'll surely earn his or her everlasting gratitude.

Birds in Panama Canal Zone.

The bird resources of the canal zone evidently are of much importance. Possibly if they are properly conserved they will become one of the valuable assets of the United States. Having permitted so much reckless bird slaughter in this country that insect pests are increasing at an alarming rate it would be well to take care of the birds that have been added to our national possessions by reason of the acquisition of a section of Panama—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Why Currants Are Good for Us.

Currants, in spite of their rather insignificant place on our bills of fare are decidedly beneficial to humanity. For their chief constituents, potassium tartaric acid—which gives them their sharpness—and grape sugar, all easily digested substances, all have value. English dietists, especially, harp on the health-preserving qualities of this small fruit.

TURNING TO THE PARTY OF PROTECTION

Indication, that Voters Are Abandoning the Party of Free-Trade and Hard Times

San Francisco Chronicle

The election of a Republican Mayor in Chicago by a plurality of over 135,000 in an election at which a very large vote was cast, together with similar successes at St. Louis and elsewhere, are but additional evidence that the voters of the nation are again returning to the Republican party to save them from Democratic misrule.

If it be said that it makes no difference to a city whether its Mayor is a Democrat or Republican, the reply is that these elections do show the trend of public sentiment, for these elections were contested by Republican and Democratic organizations, and the result unquestionably indicates a landslide of votes into the Republican party.

And it also shows how important it is that party divisions be retained in State elections. In the first place, there is party responsibility for the respective nominees, but, especially the disclosure of the trend of public sentiment which these elections give is of the utmost importance as an aid to the decision upon party policies.

No sane person would advocate the elimination of division on national lines in State elections, except members of a moribund organization who desire to cover its death struggles from sight.

Another indication of the elections is the showing that the Socialist party is no larger than it has been. There is, and always has been, an irreducible minimum of the unbalanced who permit demagogues to lead them they know not where. The percentage is fairly constant and does not tend to increase.

At such periods as that which we have just been passing thru, when party faiths generally are broken up and masses of cut loose from their political mooring, an extremely radical party is quite certain to get a large vote from the unsettled and discontented, who imagine that any change must be for the better, but who know nothing and care nothing about Socialism.

The elections show that this class is now beginning to realize that Socialism has in it nothing of advantage to them and are returning to parties of solidity and responsibility—in this case, the Republican party.

French Fruit Salad.

One cupful of sugar, one pound seedless Malaga grapes, half a pineapple cut a cubes, two oranges cut in small pieces, and one tumbler sherry wine. If this is used as a dessert it may be served with a boiled custard, which is made by using one pint milk, half a cupful of sugar, three eggs, and half teaspoonful extract of vanilla. Place milk in a double boiler, beat up eggs and sugar and just as the milk is at the point of boiling, add the eggs, sugar and vanilla. Remove from fire and let it cool.

Judge Peter's Pudding.

Three-quarters of a boxful of gelatin, two oranges, two lemons, six figs, nine dates, ten almonds, five English walnuts. Dissolve gelatin in one pint cold water for one hour, add one-half pint boiling hot water, the juice of two lemons and one orange, and two cupfuls of sugar. Let stand until it begins to thicken; cut the fruit, nuts and other orange in small pieces, mix well with the jelly and pour in molds. Serve with whipped cream.

Light Rolls.

One pint of sweet milk warmed sufficiently to melt one tablespoonful of butter, add one tablespoonful of sugar and a pinch of salt. When the milk is lukewarm stir in one quart of flour and one cake of compressed yeast. Put in a warm place to raise. When light enough work down and raise again, then mold into shape, put into pans and when light rub the top with white of egg and bake.

Defeat and Victory.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WOMEN'S WOES

Barbourville Women Are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must keep up, must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, beating down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with aching pains. "Many aches from kidney ills." Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people in this locality.

Mrs. J. W. Turpin, of Pittsville, Ky., says: "I did not sleep well, my back ached and mornings I felt tired. My kidneys were irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills removed the pains and regulated the kidney action."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—Get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Turpin had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N.Y. York—Advt.

Former "Ice King" Talks

John Rohrman Praises Remarkable Work of Medicine, Tanlac.

Louisville, April 18—Almost everybody in Louisville is personally acquainted with or has heard of John Rohrman, the "Ice King" of Louisville, as he was formerly called by those who have known and respected him for his honesty and integrity for a score or more years, has been a sufferer from stomach complaints and a general debilitated condition for a considerable length of time.

Like lots of other folks, Mr. Rohrman, was a little skeptical regarding the merits of the new preparation, Tanlac, as he had tried numerous medicines in the past without obtaining the right results. However, the publishing of testimonials from Louisville people he knew who had been actually benefited by Tanlac, convinced him that a test of the preparation was worth the attempt.

Mr. Rohrman had suffered much annoyance from indigestion, especially. He got Tanlac and began using it. A few afternoons ago he was prepared to make this statement:

"Less than two weeks ago I obtained this Tanlac. The medicine was just what I needed. It went straight to the spots I strengthened right up. My appetite is improved, as well as my sleep. If I had paid a thousand dollars for the medicine, it would have been worth that to me. The anticipation or taking the next dose of Tanlac is a real pleasure."

Tanlac, the remarkable medicine referred to by Mr. Rohrman, is now distributed in Louisville by the personal direction of I. I. Cooper, and in Barbourville by the Herndon Drug Co., where the famous medicine can be purchased.

In Heaven With Hop

(Cheerfully dedicated to the New York Tribune.)

"There's what I call a nice young man," remarked St. Peter to the Angel Gabriel.

"Who?" queried Gabriel, pausing for an instant in his bugle practice.

"That latest arrival. That one. See him?" went on the guardian of the Gate, pointing up Main Street. "That's Hop Sandams, just from Earth. We let such a lot of people in here who are negatively good, that it's a real pleasure to let in someone who has been aggressively virtuous during his lifetime, and that young fellow fills the bill. He's done a heap of good exposing phony food and fake merchandise in a New York newspaper."

"He seems to be coming back this way," remarked Gabriel, running several octaves.

"So he does," said St. Peter, somewhat surprised. "I'll introduce you." The next minute—or should one say the next year or the next century, for there is no such thing as time, as we know it, in the Realm of Eternity—the next whatever-it-was there appeared before St. Peter and the Angel Gabriela much agitated young man. He was making horrible discords on his new harp.

"Here, my dear sir," St. Peter began, "this is most unseemly."

"Stop!" cried the newcomer in a voice which trembled with righteous anger. "How long has this been going on? This—this scandalous state of affairs?"

"Scandalous state of affairs in Heaven?"

"Yes!"

St. Peter leaned weakly against the Gates of Jasper and Pearl and fanned himself with his Key. Gabriel gripped his bugle so hard that the mouthpiece came off.

"I'm afraid I don't quite get you, young man," said St. Peter, when he could find his voice. "What—what is it that is scandalous?" The aggressive young person, Hop Sandams by name, made a gesture of impatience. "Is it possible you don't know?" he cried. "That you never suspected? Why, this Honey. Great gloom, man, how long has this been going on? Millions of years, I suppose."

St. Peter looked about him for a convenient sent and finally popped limply on a cloud settee. Hop Sandams continued amazingly.

"I knew it was phony the minute I looked at it. I've been in the game too long not to know the bunk stiff when I see it. To think of the times I've read of your streets just flowing with milk and honey. And now to come up here and find that your Honey is almost all glucose—"

"Glucose?"

"Yes, sir, glucose; glucose and rank coloring matter. As for the combs it comes in, bees never saw them. They're made of paraffin."

St. Peter fingered his whiskers nervously and looked about for Gabriel, but Gabriel discreetly was not there. A tiny speck in the infinite marked the region of his flight.

"As for Milk," resumed the investigator, "words fail me. Why, there isn't a Board of Health anywhere on Earth that would let such Milk get by. It's just writhing with germs. Laud o' Goshen, don't you ever take any precautions? Haven't you a—"

Don't you make in-

ne. Speak-

gold

"A rap on the knocker—they are conservative at the Gate and door-bells have never found favor—reminded St. Peter of his duty. With unsteady steps he tottered toward the sound, but Hop Sandams was right after him."

"As for these Gates which you call Jasper and Pearl," he began, "while I haven't been here long enough to say positively, still I—"

He paused. St. Peter was outside attending to some new arrivals and did not hear.

"This is Heaven, isn't it?" asked the spokesman of the new arrivals.

St. Peter hesitated. Then waved an imaginary mist from before his eyes.

"It has been all along," he replied, "but I'm afraid it's going to be hell here now."

Saving The Country's Honor

A big political spectacle is in process of staging for 1916. Rehearsals are under way, and press-agents are busy. The name of the piece is "Saving the Country's Honor"—an old, old show which has had many revivals, but which will never die so long as "supes" are plentiful and willing to serve. At a gathering of some of the principals the other day, it was given out that the state of the country's health was very grave; that economic conditions closely paralleled those of 1896, and that "saving the country's honor" would be the sacred task of all present. This was the "supes" cue to wave their arms and cheer.

Now, we would not belittle a worthy cause, nor sneer at anyone who is devoted to the word honor. Honor is a holy word, whether it refer to individual standards or to the conduct of a nation. We would simply hark back to days of 1896, when the country's honor was "saved" before, and, without delving into details, call brief attention to some subsequent inconsistencies. Disclosures in the decade succeeding 1896 laid bare remarkable facts which had a decided relation to honor. Of such a nature were the disclosures, it became apparent to all who could read and reason that many of the gentry who rushed to "save the country's honor" had precious little honor of their own. It was as if wolves had feared for the safety of the sheep-fold.

We will not discourage any well-meaning "supes" who yearn to take part in the great spectacle of 1916. If the national honor is endangered by the policies of the Wilson administrations, by all means let it be saved. But we say to the large number of political chor. s-men who shout and cheer—yes, and vote at the beck of the all-star cast, be sure it is the national honor and not somebody's private graft or privilege that is imperiled, and for which the national honor gag is but a stalking-horse. A dog's hind leg is straightness its if com ared with some of the men who "saved the country's honor" in 1896.

If you are a "supes" in the big political spectacle—and "supes" are what most of us are—at least play a thinking part.

Certain ministers not only defend Billy Sunday but glory in him. They mildly classify as "slang" the evangelist's rough-neck vocabulary, and refuse to be shocked at the means he employs when the "results" he obtains are so inspiring. But why confine slang to sermons? Are not the hymn-books suffering from "dry rot" as well as the pulpit discourses? The words of some hymns are beautiful, but what is beauty compared with punch? Let Hymnals be revised to suit the times. Let there be in the Billy Sunday Hymn Book such sacred songs as—

LIV-VER-LAX

All the Effectiveness, Not the Effect of Calomel

Liv-Ver-Lax is one of the most important medical discoveries of recent years. For a long time medical experts, realizing the harmful effects of calomel, have been striving to find a liver cleanser that would be just as effective as calomel, and yet be absolutely harmless in its action. Recently this remedy was actually put forth by L. K. Grigsby, in his Liv-Ver-Lax.

Liv-Ver-Lax is a harmless vegetable compound, designed solely for the treatment of liver complaints. The immediate favor it has met with in thousands of homes is proof positive of its real value.

If you feel worn out, tongue coated, and skin sallow, don't delay until it becomes dangerous, nip the trouble in the bud with Liv-Ver-Lax. Insist on the genuine, bearing the signature and likeness of L. K. Grigsby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by all druggists. —adv.
